

Alexis Lecurgo Photography

Hello!

Hi, I'm Lexi and I am the heart and lens behind Alexis Lecurgo Photography. I'm a Toledo-based photographer, a mama, and married to my middle school sweetheart. With over a decade of experience, I capture love stories, confidence, and real connection through a blend of golden-hour glow and moody, artistic tones images that feel natural, fun, and deeply emotional, never stiff or forced.

I care deeply about the people I photograph. Whether it's a wedding day, an intimate boudoir session, or a milestone worth celebrating, my goal is to make you feel comfortable, confident, and truly seen. I'm known for being down-to-earth, detail-oriented, and fully invested from start to finish guiding you through the process while still leaving space for creativity and authentic moments to unfold.

This isn't just a job to me. It's a passion, a craft, and an honor. I believe everyone deserves to feel beautiful and have their story captured in a way that feels honest and empowering.

Alexis made our first time getting professional photos one we will never forget!! We drove an hour for a couples shoot in our hometown because I knew her work was good but she's also amazing to work with. She truly took the time to get to know us as a couple and recognized our varying comfort levels in front of a camera. My partner is a little bit more on the shy side, while I'm more out going and she took the time to make sure we both were comfortable and were having SO much fun. Alexis did a wonderful job capturing our vibe and what makes our love so special. You can see all the love and care she puts into her storytelling. We're excited to hang these up in our first home together and we'll definitely be booking with her again to capture more exciting adventures!! Due to choose you first for all our photo needs!

I felt like I had known Alexis for years from the time I came to her studio. She is so personable and made me feel so comfortable in a not so comfortable kind of photo shoot lol and helped calm my nerves. She has a wonderful personality and does beautiful work! My pictures turned out amazing and the shots were so creative. I would very highly recommend her!

We had the absolute BEST experience with Alexis Lecurgo Photography for my daughter's senior pictures! The shoot was relaxed, fun, and full of genuine moments, and Alexis captured her personality so beautifully. These photos are something we will treasure forever, and I'm so grateful to Alexis for making the experience so special. I can't recommend her enough! We're so extremely happy with our experience
